Re: Doe v. Indyke et al., No. 19-cv-8673-KPF (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Freeman:

We write pursuant to ECF Rule 21.7 and Rule III.B of this Court's Individual Practices to request that Docket Numbers 74-1 and 74-3 be sealed and re-filed on the public docket in redacted form.

Plaintiff contends these two documents contain highly confidential and sensitive information. Accordingly, with Defendants' consent, we request that Docket Numbers 74-1 and 74-3 be sealed, and that Defendants be permitted to re-file in redacted form. This request is made without prejudice to the parties' rights and legal positions.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Roberta A. Kaplan

cc: Counsel of Record

Upon hearing from counsel on 6/19/20 that Dkt. 74 contained confidential information, this Court directed that the entire docket entry be placed under seal. Counsel should now refile the full submission, with the confidential exhibits redacted, so as to omit the confidential information.
